

Lesson 1

- Etiquette
 - Chips
 - Barber Pole
 - Adding Chips to the Pot
 - Placing them out front
 - Splashing the pot
 - Raising
 - Visual Accessibility
 - Making change for players
 - Cards
 - Protecting your cards
 - How to look at your cards
 - Protecting them from dealers
 - Laying them down
 - Showing your cards
 - To other players
 - At showdown
 - Show one show all
 - Talking about cards
 - Affecting the outcome of any hand
 - Courtesy to others
 - While in a hand and talking to active players
 - Player Behavior
 - Courtesy to the players
 - Being prepared to play
 - Expressing discontent
 - Rules
 - Understanding the rules
 - Etiquette vs. rules

Lesson 2

- Starting Hands
 - Basics
 - Rankings
 - Understanding weak starting hands
 - Position
 - How position changes starting hand value
 - Using position to benefit starting hands
 - Raises
 - How raises change starting hand value
 - Using raises to increase starting hand value
 - Understanding percentages of winning
 - Blinds
 - Getting in trouble
 - Raising out of the blinds

- Any Two Cards
 - Having a game plan
 - Post Flop with any two
- Bluffing
 - The art of bluffing
 - The difficulty of getting away with it
 - Commitment to a bluff
- Reading the board
 - Getting away from losing hands
 - Knowing all possibilities
 - Likelihood of drawing

Lesson 3

- Betting and Raising
 - Limping
 - Generally a bad idea
 - Reasons to limp
 - Folding on a limp/raise
 - Pre-flop
 - Establishing control
 - Making other players play
 - Position
 - Getting information
 - All-in preflop
 - Post-Flop
 - Asserting Control
 - Taking Stabs
 - Understanding the board
 - Getting information
 - Check Raise
 - Extremely valuable with monsters
 - Buying the pot
 - Taking away control
 - Amount
 - Bet Size Pre Flop
 - Bet Size Post Flop
 - How much and why
 - Pot Odds
 - What are pot odds
 - Making sense of your own play
 - Chip Stacks
 - Shortstacked
 - Chip Leader

Lesson 4

- Reading your opponents
 - Reasons
 - Making good decisions
 - Improving your own play
 - Confidence in bluffs
 - The Art of Reading
 - The levels of understanding
 - Information
 - Forcing players to shift gears
 - Reevaluation of reads
 - Post-Flop behavior
 - Turn and River Behavior
 - Misreads
 - Why?
 - Learning from mistakes
 - Paying attention to players throughout the game
 - Improving your overall game
 - Type of player
 - Aggressive
 - ATM
 - Donk
 - Calling Station
 - Gus Hansen

Lesson 5

- Position Play
 - Most Important Factor
 - What is position?
 - How do I use position?
 - Value
 - Decreased/Increased hand value
 - Control over opponents
 - Dragging pots
 - Easy Money
 - Stealing/buying pots
 - Buying Position
 - Understanding the players
 - When and where
 - How does it help?
 - Semi-Bluffs
 - Betting on draws
 - Sensing weakness

Lesson 6

- Visualizing Play
 - Flop Anticipation

- Can I fold AA/big cards
 - Knowing the perfect flop
- Knowing your action/reaction before any bets
 - Unpredictability by your own play
 - Unpredicted behavior by others
 - Understanding when to fold
 - Understanding potentiality with coming cards
 - All-in preflop
- Stealing pots
 - Small pocket pairs
 - Overbetting due to potentiality
 - Getting paid off with the nutz
- Bluffing
 - Knowing what flop will allow it
 - Getting good reads
 - Sensing weakness

Lesson 7

- End Game
 - 6 players and less
 - Hand values increase
 - Utilizing chip strength
 - Aggression
 - On the bubble
 - Shortstacked
 - Play more hands
 - Attack anyone
 - Goals
 - Attacking particular players
 - Being the chip leader
 - Stealing blinds
 - Forcing play

Lesson 8

- Heads-Up
 - Using position
 - Understanding the value of the small blind/button
 - Advantage over opponent throughout each hand
 - Any two cards
 - Aggression on weak flops
 - Forcing opponent to make difficult decisions
 - Making opponent believe what you want them to
 - Psychological warfare
 - Folding pre-flop
 - Betting/Raising
 - Showing cards

- Understanding chip stack
- Shifting gears
 - Different approaches
 - Mind game
 - Making opponent shift gears
- Winning Hands
 - Understanding opponents behavior
 - When you've got the nutz
 - Getting paid off
 - How do I know when a pair of 10's is the winner?